Artworks and captions by Yves

Mutation

'Sea creatures now share their spaces with these new species that we create by millions every day. The fish eat it... And we love fish!'

Domino Effect

'Karma wants any action, good or bad, that we take, to catch up with us sooner or later!'

Ctrl-X, Ctrl-V

'Well, nothing to add!'

Everything is transformed

'With a ball of knitting yarn, each portion removed from the ball will definitely become part of the hat, socks or sweater that you're knitting. It won't come back. The same goes for our way of exploiting the earth's resources to transform them into houses, clothes, or other tires …
We remove the trees, without thinking of replacing them! They won't come back by themselves.'
